

JODIE KEOGH & JENNIFER MULHALL, BEAUTY RETAILERS

Jodie Keogh and Jennifer Mulhall thought Perth lacked products with a 'conscience', so they opened B-Kind Organic Beauty Bar, a chic Subiaco store specialising in high-end organic or natural beauty products.

Sodashi Calming Skin Boost, $109.30, from www.sodashi.com.

"This all-natural leave-on gel mask soothes and tones sensitive, reactive and irritated skin. Brazilian rosewood, calendula, neroli, patchouli and chamomile nutrients penetrate the skin, repairing damaged capillaries and reducing redness."

Save Our Skin A Powerful Concoction organic ointment, $39.95. Stockists: 1300 797 806.

"This restorative balm is derived from a formula developed by Galen, Greek surgeon to the gladiators of the second century. The organic ingredients, including extra virgin olive oil, beeswax, honey and infused calendula flowers, are sure to make even the most angry skin smile again. It's brilliant for lips, hands, cracked heels, nappy rash, burns, scrapes and eczema."

Nature Girl, right, botanical face moisturiser, $59.95 each, from www.nature-girl.com.

"Super-rich and luxurious moisturiser for daily use, made with shea butter, safflower oil and sea algae to soothe, hydrate and protect the skin. It comes in Lavender Flower for normal skin; Rose Petal for dry skin; Orange Peel for combination skin and Calendula Flower for sensitive skin and no scent for hypersensitive skin."

Rich Hippie Rock Star perfume, $69, from www.rich-hippie.com.

"This is quite a racy tropical floral scent, with extracts of rare Indonesian flowers, Madagascar vanilla bean and cloves. The perfume is made using organic Californian wine alcohol and methods employed by the perfumers before World War II and the advent of the chemical industry."

Nvey Eco-Organic creme deluxe foundation, $69.95. Stockists: 1800 245 412.

"This certified organic foundation gives a flawless look without fuss, providing a high-definition, full-coverage finish ideal for everyday use, photographic work, bridal and glamour."

TEGAN SAPWELL, TV NEWS REPORTER

Channel 9 reporter Tegan Sapwell has been in the television industry for more than three years. With her active and demanding job, she always looks fabulous for the camera.

Youngblood Loose Natural Mineral foundation, $67.50, from Bridget Black, Mt Lawley.

"It's a foundation, concealer and powder all in one — a massive timesaver that's also great for your skin. It's not stocked in many shops, but if you can track it down, it's worth it. I swear by it."

Chi Chi Simply Irresistible lip gloss, $14.95, from Myer, Perth.

"They're cheap, in a great range of colours and smell heavenly."

Olay Complete Touch of Sun body moisturiser, $9.95. Stockists: 1800 028 280.

"I'm a bit of a tanning addict but refuse to bake in the sun, so this is a perfect compromise. It gives you a nice glow, is easy to apply and most importantly — doesn't turn orange."

Clinique Dramatically Different moisturising lotion, $73, from Myer, Perth.

"I love Clinique's skincare range but, in particular, their moisturiser, which is fab."

Burberry Brit eau de toilette spray, $79, from The Perfume Connection stores. "It's my favourite scent. Gorgeous."
